

Studies of Women, Gender, and Sexuality Thesis Track Application

Please complete this form and return it with the required attachment to the WGS Office, Boylston Hall, Ground Floor by 5 pm on Friday, November 1, 2019.

Name: _____ Class of: _____

Date of Application: _____ Email: _____

1. Please describe (500 words maximum) why you wish to complete a thesis in Women, Gender, and Sexuality and what you hope to achieve in the program. What will be your intellectual focus and what thesis ideas are you considering? IF YOU ARE APPLYING FOR A JOINT CONCENTRATION, PLEASE DESCRIBE HOW YOU ANTICIPATE THE TWO FIELDS INFORMING YOUR RESEARCH.

2. Please provide the name and email address of the WGS adviser or faculty member with whom you have spoken about the thesis track. Please speak to the Director or Associate Director of Undergraduate Studies before filling out and submitting this application.

3. List up to two topics that you would like to make the focus of your Junior Tutorial (WOMGEN 98r).

4. What kinds of disciplinary or methodological approaches (e.g. surveys, archival work, literary analysis) do you hope to incorporate into your research? Please list no more than three.

5. List up to five readings that you wish to include on your Junior Tutorial "reading list".

6. Please append the following:
- a. Recent transcript with grades
 - b. Plan of study
 - c. Writing sample (no more than 5-10 pages)